PROCESSING INFORMATION

This collection was processed by Gabrielle Garcia as part of the 2020 CSL Project. This project was guided by an overarching anti-racist framework that informs archival practice in all aspects at Lambda Archives. Therefore, along with processing the collections specified in the original narrative, we intentionally prioritize the collections of BIPOC and Transgender members of the community to preserve and disseminate their narratives, which have been historically ignored and suppressed in archives across the U.S.

This framework promotes transparency and accountability in our responsibility to those in the LGBTQ+ community that have been historically underrepresented, misrepresented and/or trivialized in archives. Our goals are to (a) gain or rebuild trust with BIPOC members of the community; (b) more fully reflect the community's diversity; (c) outwardly recognize the contributions that BIPOC have made which have enabled the community, as a whole, to flourish; and (d) improve the discoverability of these under-acknowledged histories to increase their engagement for varying purposes within the community and for research and public knowledge.

ABSTRACT

BIOGRAPHY OR HISTORY

Beautiful Lesbian Thespians (BLT), which later became Labrys Productions, is San Diego's first lesbian theater group that performed plays solely by lesbian playwrights. The group was formed in 1987 after the production My Sister. They operated from donations under the Center's umbrella as a non-profit. Beautiful Lesbian Thespians changed their name to Labrys Production in early 1991 while preparing for Cinderella: The Real True Story to "reflect the group's commitment to lesbian theater and its roots" and to create a more serious image of their group. BLT/LP operated under the umbrella of The Center. Notable people involved in the organization included: Ellie Rapp, Muriel Fisher, Julia Doughty, Kithie Gateley, Sheila Clarke, Winona McNitt, Francine Blanchard, Tris(tan) Higgins, Darlene Cleary, Judy Bennett, Gail/Gayle Feldman, Lois Gail, Sherry Hopwood, Sandy Berry, Linda Fiddler, Cookie Jackson, Barbara Lee, Rose Sanchez, Andrea Villa, Judith McConnell.
