BIOGRAPHY OR HISTORY

“This corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for private gain of any person. The specific purpose of this corporation is to present educational activities consisting of public forums, discussion groups, speakers, newsletters, and other like educational activities, on subjects dealing with sexuality and issues germane to the public and the gay and lesbian community.”

-Bylaws of 1987 located in folder 1

“NCGA is a regularly meeting social support organization for gay men and women residing in North San Diego county. NCGA conducts itself as an informed, congenial, and respected member of the community at large and as a responsible representative of the gay community; strives to develop and maintain a supportive and sharing relationship with other local, state, and national gay organizations while retaining its own distinctive orientation as determined by its active members; is primarily a social-support organization yet acknowledges the political, economic, and social issues particular to the gay community and, as an organization, strives to provide an awareness of these issues to its membership in order that each member may choose in which ways he or she will voice a personal opinion or engage in action; hopes to nurture the personal integrity and growth of its individual members.”

-Statement of Philosophy folder 1

The North County Gay and Lesbian Association held events, educated the community, and published a monthly newsletter.
