ABSTRACT

BIOGRAPHY OR HISTORY

The San Diego North County Center (NCGA) was founded in 1981 with bylaws created in 1987. "NCGA is a regularly meeting social-support organization for Gays and Lesbians and friends of their community, residing in and near Northern San Diego County, California." The NCGA general membership was composed of dues-paying Gay men and Lesbian women and other interested persons. They were composed of a committee of officers and directors consisting of chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary, treasurer, newsletter editor, membership director, activities director, publicity director, community liaison director, the immediate past chairperson, and three directors at large."
